ARRIVAL OF THE TWENTY-EIGHTH REGIMENT.—The steamer Star of the South arrived at the Arsenal wharf about three o'clock yesterday afternoon, having on board the twenty-eighth (Brooklyn) regiment. They immediately proceeded to disembark, and about six o'clock took up their line of march for their quarters, but were disappointed in finding that no provision had been made for them. On arriving on the avenue, they were conducted to a house opposite the National Hotel, and a portion of them managed to get themselves in, but a large number were compelled to stand on the pavement for hours, until quarters were hunted up in the neighborhood.

The regiment is composed mostly of young and vigorous men, who are anxious to be called into active service. In the absence of Colonel Bennett, who was obliged to remain at home on account of sickness, Lieut. Col. E. Burns is in command. The other officers are Acting Lieut. Col. W. R. Brewster; Adjutant, D. A. Hooker; Surgeon, P. B. Rice; Surgeon's Mate, Drs. Rappold and Prentiss; Captain of Engineers, Corp. Von Kunkel; Quartermaster, F. Steiger; Assistant Quartermaster, C. Mensch; Acting Paymaster, W. Maville; Chaplain, Mr. Zeph. They number about six hundred men, divided into ten companies, commanded by Captains Brower, Baker, Campbell, Bradenbury, Beadle, Seeger, Rueger, Willa, Kuhl, and Weaver.

This is the first full regiment which has come by water the full distance, and they describe their trip as being a pleasant one throughout. The men are very much charmed at their reception, and express the hope that on the arrival of the other regiments commanding by water, that no officer of the Government will be in attendance to conduct them to their quarters.

DEPARTURE OF THE MASSACHUSETTS SIXTH REGIMENT.—This fine regiment, Colonel Jones commanding, left the city in the regular three o'clock train yesterday. None of the men knew where they were going, though it was the general supposition that they would be placed along the line of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, so as to protect the passage of troops to this city by that route. The men looked remarkably well, and seemed to regard a battle with the secessionists a very acceptable thing.

ENCAMPMENT OF THE SIXTY-NINTH.—The sixty-ninth regiment of New York, Colonel Corcoran commanding, on their arrival in this city, received an invitation from the faculty of Georgetown College to encamp on the eminuous grounds of that institution. The invitation was accepted, and on Saturday afternoon the regiment, headed by Robertson's big band, proceeded to the grounds and erected their tents. The encampment will add no little interest to that already beautiful locality, and the spacious grounds will afford them plenty of room for exercises. We have no doubt but that the gallant colonel and his command will soon make themselves extremely popular with the people of Georgetown; and we take pleasure in recommending them to their kind consideration.

ARRIVAL OF COMPANY D, SECOND ARTILLERY.—Company D, second artillery, U. S. regulars, acting as infantry, arrived here on Saturday afternoon, direct from Annapolis. This company, which is commanded by Capt. Pratt, are recently from Fort Mackinaw, Wisconsin. They are a splendid company of men, and, for the present, are quartered at the arsenal.

THE NEW YORK SEVENTY-FIFTH.—This fine regiment have been called into service at the Navy Yard. On Friday they were sworn in, when Major McDowell accompanied them very highly as a regiment. They have been very active in their drilling operations of late, devoting six or seven hours each day to the duty.

KEEPING THEM IN PLACE.—A squad from the Rhode Island and other regiments have been on duty during the past two nights, with orders to arrest any person in uniform found out after 9 o'clock, unless they had a special permit. A number were found, who had "lost or mislaid" the needed article, and were accordingly marched off to their quarters.

PROMOTED.—We hear that Dr. Antsell, late assistant examiner at the Patent Office, has been promoted to the place of chief examiner.

STAMPEDE FROM ALEXANDRIA.—During Saturday and yesterday, there was a perfect stampede from Alexandria, in anticipation of an attack being made upon the city by the United States troops now here. The military there were the first to take the alarm, and fled in the direction of Culpepper Court-house. Yesterday there was hardly one-half of the usual population of the city remaining there. Most of the Union men remain, however, and are determined to sustain the Government in their effort to overthrow the secession despotism.

PROCLAMATION BY THE MAYOR.—On Saturday, May 1, the police, has been promoted to be lieutenant of the guard, in place of Noddy J. Thomas, resigned.

William H. Bright, a policeman of the seventh ward, has been appointed lieutenant of the police in place of McHenry, promoted.

Mrs. J. Z. Williams, T. L. Burch, and Thaddeus E. Sands, have been appointed guardsmen in place of Thompson, John Flaherty, and P. M. Thornton, who have left the city. Mr. Sands has been assigned for clerical duty in the Chief's office.

THEATRE.—To night, we are to have a splendid hall of attractions, something to suit every taste—the military drama of the "Maid of Croissey," "He's Jealous?" and "Boys and Girls." Mr. E. Langrish, of the New York twenty-fifth regiment will appear to night, in addition to all the favorites of the company.

FIRE ALARM.—The alarm of fire about 11 o'clock on Saturday night proved to be false. The firemen responded promptly, but luckily there was no need for their services.

RELEASED.—Messrs. Frederick Cunningham, Alfred Wilkerson, Adam Grindler, John Richland, Dennis Callahan, and J. Banks, who were arrested on the charge of being secessionists, were last week discharged from custody.

ORGANIZATION OF OUR MILITARY.—We hear that our military companies who have lately been mustered into the service of the Government are being consolidated into regiments, and put in proper trim for field service.

PROCLAMATION BY THE MAYOR.—On Saturday, May 2, Mayor Berrett issued a proclamation, and caused it to be served by the police whenever intoxicating liquors are sold, calling upon all proprietors of drinking establishments to have their respective places of business closed at 11 o'clock every night. We understand that this step has been taken by the advice of the military authorities, and that, should the request not be complied with, it will be enforced by them.

THE ZOUAVES.—We hear that the unruly members of Col. Edwards' Zouave regiment are being brought up, and will probably be sent back to New York this week. Most of them are very much enraged at the conduct of some who have behaved in a very unruly manner on our streets. We are assured that when they rid themselves of the unruly element, our citizens will not have any cause to fear them. With the bands in which they were brought together, it was impossible to examine each applicant's character before he was received, and many who are wild and reckless to ever become good subjects, were received into their ranks.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—There were eight marriage licenses issued from the eighth ward office at the City Hall during the month of April. Who says Washington ain't a Union city.

COMMUNIST.—MESSRS. EDITORS: Will you be so good as to request, somewhat, to raise the "Stars and Stripes" on the unfinished monument to the father of his country. Would it not be a good idea for the President of these United States to take counsel beneath the "star-spangled banner" at the "White House." The people would like to see the banner, under which they are marching to certain victory, thus displayed.

EXTRA POLICE.—An extra police, consisting of one hundred and twenty mounted men, will go on duty to-night. The force will be detailed entirely from the military now on duty in this city. Lieutenant John Ellwood, U. S. A., has been appointed the provost marshal of the forces. The head-quarters will be at the central guardhouse.

EXHIBITANT CHANGEL.—We are informed that some of the military here have been deceived by certain restaurant keepers. A member of the Rhode Island regiment was induced to pay a dollar a few nights ago for a supper consisting of ham and eggs and tea. Pretty dear eating!

MARRIED.—Fitzgerald—Clarke.—On the 25th April, 1861, at the residence of Edward H. Fuller, the bride's uncle, by the Rev. P. D. Garley, Eugene Fitzgerald and Sarah Fuller Clarke, all of this city.

Proposals for Furnishing the Paper for the Public Printing.

OFFICE STAMPED AND DATED, APRIL 21, 1861.

IN PURSUANCE of the previous notice, I do hereby issue to the public printing office, the following paper, to be used for the printing of the public prints for the year ending on the last day of December, 1861, to wit:—

Thomas Bevan, a private in the company, requested to bring present at the armory of the company on the night in question, and hearing Capt. Miller give the order for a guard to go and arrest Boyd. This was between 10 and 11 o'clock. The order was given to Corporal Murphy, who took the squad and went away immediately.

Wm. McCoy, a private in the United States service, testified to hearing two reports of pistol shots that night, and immediately got up and went to the window. About minute after he got there, he heard the report of a volley of muskets; supposed there were four or five fired. Witness resides one square from the scene of the homicide.

Upon being questioned as to the relative duty of officers and privates, this witness stated that when a superior officer gives an order to a sergeant, and the sergeant does not think he should obey it, he has the right to ask for it in writing. The private has no right to inquire into the legality of an order, his duty is only to obey it; a failure to do so would be regarded as disobedience of orders, and subject him to punishment. When an order is given to a sergeant to go with a squad and take a man, he is expected to exercise his own discretion. If a man fires upon them while they are endeavoring to make the arrest, he is liable to be killed.

Corporal Zephaniah Offutt testified to being in the army that night, and receiving an order to go to the assistance of Murphy with twenty men, as he had been fired on. Went a short distance in the direction of Boyd's house, but returned when he saw that the men of his own company were in no danger. Saw private Carter have a loaded gun in his hand at the armory on his return. Does not think the gun could have been fired and reloaded; it looked clean and bright.

Several other witnesses not being present, the further examination was postponed until 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, at the jail.

ARRIVAL OF MAJOR ANDERSON.—The gallant hero of Fort Sumter arrived in Washington on Saturday morning. He received a very cordial welcome at the War Department, and from his numerous friends here.

SPECIES.—Major Anderson, who arrived here Saturday from New York, is the bearer of $4,000,000 in gold from the New York sub-treasury to the United States Treasury here.

Directors.—Edward M. Mealey, Washington county; Enoch B. Hutton, Montgomery county; Victor Holmes, Baltimore county; John Jamison, Baltimore city; Robert R. Vandever, Harford county; J. J. Heckart, Cecil county.
